(BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN)

An ex-Congressman Going West

New York, April 1—The Times Cincinnati special says Vance the missing ex-congressman, has been lately seen at St Louis and again at Kansas City It is now hinted that he is a defaulter

Morrissey Very Ill

Morrissey is again very ill at Troy His friends fear the worst Morrissey once said "When it is my time to die I want to die in Troy"

Shipwreck.

New York, April 1—A dispatch from Valparaiso says The ship I L Hudson from New York for San Francisco was wrecked off Cape Horn. Part of the crew saved

Suicide of a Noted Character.

New York, April 1.—The police were startled by the announcement that the well known Madame Restell had been found dead early this morning, in a bath room in her mansion on Fifth avenue. Ex-Judge Stewart of the district attorney's office, was called by the woman's family at an early hour and informed that she retired feeling very despondent over her trial, which was to have taken place to-day. She rose in the night and went into the bath-room, where she fell dead The husband stated to a friend last night that she did not care what might be the result of the trial, so far as she herself was concerned She only cared for the reputation and feelings of her grandchildren. The case was called in court to-day, and adjourned

Later

New York, April 1.—Madame Restell committed suicide by cutting her throat with a carving knife. She was found in a bath tub which was filled with water

The Coroner examined the body and found that a gash had been cut across the front of the throat, severing the jugular vein and a gash on the right side of the neck a little below. This gash indicated that the first attempt had been ineffectual The knife was a large carving knife, which was used on Madame Restell's table and which she is believed to have taken up stairs and secreted in her room last night. The water had been left running in the bath tub, and had run so long that the tank above was exhausted The overflow had passed off through the waste pipe and hence there was but little blood in the water, which still filled the tub The body was cold, and it was evident that the woman had been dead for some time Ever since her arrest she had manifested great fear and anxiety on account of the belief that the prosecution intended to bring other charges against her in reference to an old case This belief had taken such possession of her that it almost amounted to an hallucination The members of her family said she was very nervous all day yesterday, and showed symptoms of mental derangement The suicide was discovered about eight this morning

Order in the Anderson Case.

New Orleans, April 1—The supreme court made the following order in the Anderson case:

"Ordered and decreed that a rehearing is refused and that our judgment stand undisturbed"

Mr. [illegible], one of Anderson's counsel immediately appeared with a certified copy of the decree before Judge Whitaker, who at once ordered the release of Anderson from prison. About 1:30 Gen. Anderson was released.

By [illegible] of California—Resolution of the same [illegible] asking a recognition of the Diaz government [illegible].

By [illegible]—For the financial relief of the country, to facilitate the return to specie payment without injuriously affecting the commercial business of the people. It directs the secretary of the treasury, when the amount of coin and bullion in the treasury shall exceed a hundred millions to redeem present outstanding U S legal tender notes, when presented in sums of $1,000 and upwards, with coin of full standard value.

By Money—To regulate contracts for carrying the mails. It provides that when any contractor [illegible] his contract the postmaster general shall [illegible] such contract and make a new contract at a rate not to exceed the old one, and defines subletting or employment, by any contractor of any person to perform the service at his own expense and no part of the service being borne by such contractor.

By Bright—To prevent a reduction of the national currency by fraudulently withdrawing legal tender notes from circulation

By Martin—By request, to establish and maintain communication with neighboring republics, colonies and islands.

By Harrison—To provide for a more efficient civil service.

By White, of Pennsylvania — Proposing an amendment to the constitution requiring the presentation of all claims agreeable to the provisions of the law within six years, providing that when rejected by congress or a department they shall not again be presented until after the lapse of six years.

Singleton, from the appropriation committee reported a bill providing for the deficiency in the appropriation for public printing and binding for the fiscal year.

Hartsell introduced a joint resolution proposing an amendment to the constitution forbidding the assumption of the payment of the claim for the losses growing out of the destruction of property within the limits of the states engaged in the rebellion. Referred.

THE TERRITORIES.

Thomas Vaugh died of consumption on the 17th. Lee Kelly drove into the Natchez river with a two horse wagon and was drowned. The body has not yet been recovered All these were well known in and about Fort [illegible]

WASHINGTON CITY

New York, April 1—The [illegible] Washington special says Jones of Nevada and Mitchell were not present at the Republican senatorial caucus Saturday. Conkling, Howe, Patterson and Conover were also absent

A Bill to Cripple the Administration

Executive officers insist that the new legislative bill proposed by the house appropriation committee will seriously cripple every branch of the public service. In some of the departments a reduction of 30 per cent of the clerical force without discrimination is proposed. The interior department is most seriously affected not even force enough allowed to watch the building and to guard against fires such as that which recently nearly destroyed the patent offices

Public Debt Statement

WASHINGTON April 1—The public debt statement for March shows a decrease in the debt for the month of $2,313,614 and the following balances in the treasury Currency $[illegible],854 special fund for the redemption of fractional currency $10,000,000 special deposits of legal tenders for redemption of certificates of deposit $2[illegible],000 coin $138,357,608 including coin certificates $57,883,400 outstanding legal tenders $347,848,712

Hayes, the Placid.

WASHINGTON April 1—Several gentlemen who called on the president to-day having incidentally alluded to the position of the Republican senators toward him he replied that he supposed there was now a better feeling among them, as from what he could hear they had recently given expression to their views concerning him and especially he thought Senator Howe felt better after delivering his speech The president does not seem in the least disturbed by the adverse criticism and places himself on the ground that it is in accordance with his sense of right

Reissue of U S Notes

WASHINGTON April 1—Secretary Sherman was before the committee on banking and currency on invitation and in the course of his statement claimed that after resumption of specie payment he will have authority to reissue $300,000,000 of United States notes under authority of the existing law of 1873 contained in the revised statutes, relative to the reissue of United States notes received for taxes

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

Russian Securities and War Risks in England.

LONDON April 1—At Lloyd's Saturday war insurances were 5s per £100 on British hulls and cargoes 10s to 20s on Black Sea risks which are regarded with great disfavor and a half to 1 per cent on Russian hulls Russian exchange has fallen 11 per cent the past week The rouble is now quoted at 21½ to 22 pence The Money Market Review says It is morally certain that war would be immediately followed by Russian bankruptcy and the entire suspension of payments of the debt

ROME, April 1—Cardinal McCloskey has gone to Florence

THE BRITISH REGULAR ARMY

HOW IT IS SCATTERED OVER THE WORLD'S SURFACE

[From the London Daily News]

According to the army estimates just submitted to parliament the strength of the regular army is practically the same as it was last year The home army is reduced while that of the colonies is increased and the number of British troops in India remains as it was, namely, at 62,600 men Together, for the home and colonial forces Mr Hardy asks for 135,452 men against 133,[illegible]20 last year but the slight increase is more than absorbed by the unusual demand of our colonies this year Instead of 24,700 men which represented the colonial army last year 30,388 are now called for leaving us at home with something like 100,000 men We cannot however, calculate upon this number as good men and true, for, deducting recruits time expired men, and non fighting soldiers there would probably remain not more than 70,000 fit and ready to be drawn up in line of battle Of our colonial troops the Mediterranean stations monopolize nearly half between them The garrison at Gibraltar is represented by 4,931, and that of Malta which has recently been considerably augmented is shown to be 8,004 In China, at Hongkong there are 1,209 British soldiers, at Ceylon, 1,2[illegible]4 and in the Straits settlements 1,0[illegible]2 On the west coast of Africa there is one regiment of West Indians distributed between Sierra Leone and the Gold Coast, the former colony having a garrison of 426 while the Gold Coast and Lagos must be content with 106 In South Africa there is a comparatively large force of British soldiers just now, by reason of the Kaffir war indeed the garrison is just double its ordinary strength, or in other words amounts to 6,243 men The island of St Helena is held by 118 artillerymen and that of Mauritius by a force of 562 all told In Bermuda there are 2,146 British troops, in Halifax 1,831 and throughout the West Indies about [illegible],000 more Finally comes the colony of Fiji which is represented by the British army in the person of one royal engineer and a man in the army hospital corps making a total of two Altogether we are informed the home, colonial, and Indian armies are made up of 32 regiments of cavalry 230 batteries of artillery 42 companies of engineers 141 battalions of infantry and the army hospital and service corps

Hints for Advertisers.

[From the New York Sun]

There is as everybody knows who understands our newspaper literature a lot of journals published simply for the purpose of getting advertising Nobody reads them and even as a gift they are refused Yet men of good sense in other matters will spend their money in advertising their wares in these useless sheets

What makes a journal desirable as a medium for advertising is first a large circulation and secondly the hold it has on its readers—the moral and intellectual influence it exerts upon them A paper may be printed by the million and thrust as a gift into every man's hand and yet [be] an advertising medium of no real value But a paper which has the confidence of its readers [illegible] gets them to [illegible] their [illegible] is the great [illegible] will [illegible]

Vast sums of [illegible] are [illegible] [illegible] simply from a lack of understanding of this [illegible] [illegible] for [illegible] [illegible] new papers do not tell them honestly what they will get for their money They pay for an article which they are not suffered to see

THE EASTERN QUESTION.

Efforts to Come to an Understanding

LONDON, March 31—A Vienna dispatch to the Daily Telegraph says Count Andrassy is making fresh efforts to bring about a meeting of the congress and thinks Russia will eventually yield to England's demand Count Andrassy informed Gen Ignatieff that the whole tendency of the treaty was in opposition to the interests of Europe and no lasting peace could be concluded without the sanction of all the powers Ignatieff rejoined that Russia had altogether abandoned the idea of a congress in consequence of the difficulties raised by England He urged Andrassy to state Austria's demands The count declined as he still hoped for the congress but declared if he had to consider the treaty solely from an Austrian point of view he would demand far greater concessions than if he had to consider it in relation to the general interests of Europe Ignatieff also failed to convince the emperor

The Telegraph's correspondent says he has the foregoing on the highest official authority He adds that Germany has approved the refusal of Prince Charles of Roumania to surrender Bessarabia unless invited to do so by the powers

A Plan of Settlement.

A dispatch to the Daily News from St Petersburg says Despite the general excitement a few men in high position advocate a final attempt at conciliation by the simultaneous withdrawal of the British fleet and Russian army from the neighborhood of Constantinople pending arbitration by neutral sovereigns

Five Hundred Guns Ordered

LONDON April 1—Specials say the czar has ordered 500 additional Krupp guns

A Starter

An unimportant scrimmage between Russian and English soldiers at St Stefano has occurred

Consultation with the Sultan.

CONSTANTINOPLE April 1—Grand Duke Nicholas had a two hours' interview with the sultan Saturday

Popoff Pops in Constantinople

Russian Admiral Popoff has arrived here

The Egyptian Contingent

The Egyptian contingent from Varna is encamped at Unkiar Skelessi a village of Asia Minor, on the Bosporus eight miles northeast of Constantinople

Understanding Reached—Hopes of Peace

It is believed in military circles that Russia and Turkey have arrived at an understanding It is still hoped peace will be maintained

The Message Calling Out the Reserves

The queen's message for calling out the reserves was read by the speaker It is as follows

The present state of public affairs in the east and the necessity of taking steps for the maintenance of peace and for the interests of the empire having constituted, in the opinion of her majesty a case of great emergency within the meaning of the acts of parliament in that behalf her majesty deems it proper to provide additional means for the public service,

Therefore In pursuance of these acts her majesty has thought it right to communicate to the house of commons that she is about to direct the reserve force or such part thereof as her majesty may think necessary to be forthwith called out for permanent service

The discussion of the message was postponed until Monday next

Lord Derby's Resignation and the Chance for Peace

LONDON April 1—A St Petersburg dispatch states that Lord Derby's resignation of the foreign office was a complete surprise and caused an immense sensation in official circles Lord Derby says the Dispatch is reproached for having misled Russia and England by going as far as he did in a direction which he disapproved

A Vienna dispatch says In consequence of Lord Derby's resignation and the calling out of the reserves Austria has ceased her efforts to effect a compromise about the congress feeling sure that Russia will not yield to England's demands now when doing so would seem somewhat like submitting before a threat, but what may not be possible now may become so An interruption in regard to the congress and the order for mobilization of the reserves in England need not be followed at once by an actual collision between the two powers, and a conviction may be forced upon them that after all the congress offers the only possible chance of a peaceful settlement

Ignatieff's Mission

The impression is that, whatever may have been originally the object of Gen Ignatieff's mission, he confined himself in fact to giving and receiving information and returns to St Petersburg and to report what he heard He probably discovered that Austria is too anxious for European condemnation of the treaty of San Stefano to enter into any bargain about it with Russia alone, which would seem to have given it Austrian sanction

Herr Tisza's Mission.

Herr Tisza's visit here was arranged before Saturday's demonstration in the Hungarian diet and is not therefore in consequence of it but it may be supposed Tisza will take the opportunity to represent to Count Andrassy the state of public opinion in Hungary

The Porte Passive.

CONSTANTINOPLE April 1—In the event of war it is expected the Porte will remain passive and endeavor to make its territory respected failing which the Porte will simply protest to the powers

Has not Resigned

The report that Vefik Effendi president of the council of ministers, has resigned is contradicted

More Russian than English.

PERA April 1—Osman and Raouf Pasha have become more Russian than English Turkish and Russian soldiers fraternize the latter going about Constantinople in uniform without evoking animosity If war comes England must contemplate the possibility of having to fight Turkey and Russia At best she would get from Turkey a one sided neutrality of little or no substantial use

England's View of the Situation

LONDON April 1—In the house of commons Sir Stafford Northcote in reply to a question by Lord Hartington said a circular had been sent to the powers by the British government explaining the views of the government regarding the present position of affairs

BRITISH COLUMBIA

THE LAW AND THE FACTS

SALEM April 1 1878

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

I have seen with [illegible] the efforts to convince [illegible] that greenbacks are [illegible] to pay [illegible] were exempt from taxation by state authorities You have already made the subject sufficiently clear to [illegible] apprehension so that I can add nothing to your lucid statement of facts except to [illegible] in support of your position Section 3[illegible] of the U S revised statutes is in the following words "All stocks bonds treasury notes and other obligations of the United States shall be exempt from taxation by or under state or municipal authority"

In addition to the above plain statutory provision the question was adjudicated by the supreme court of the United States at the December term 1868 in the case of The Bank vs Supervisors and reported in 7th Wallace page 26 The court says "Legal tender notes are obligations or securities of the United States and exempt from state taxation They are not money in the same sense that gold or silver coin of the United States is money"

In the case of Lane county vs State of Oregon tried at same term and reported in same volume page 71 it was decided that a state tax is not a debt within the meaning of the legal tender acts and that when a state requires taxes to be paid in coin they cannot be discharged by a tender of treasury notes

In the case of Hepburn vs Griswold decided at the December term 1869, the court decided that a contract made before the passage of the legal tender act, and payable in dollars generally cannot be discharged in legal tender notes nominally equal in amount to the debt and that these acts are unconstitutional so far as they seek to make such notes a legal tender in discharge of pre existing debts

You will observe that neither the act of congress referred to or the supreme court decisions treat legal tender notes as money but simply as promises to pay money In support of this position I might quote from other decisions as well as from the speeches of every Democratic statesman of the time who spoke upon the subject in congress when these questions were under consideration sufficient to fill your columns for the next six months Such quotations would but be cumulative evidence corroborative of your position and would discredit and fasten incontestably duplicity and falsehood upon many of the Democratic statesmen of that day who are now the advocates of the greenback inflation and rag money currency

After all those decisions were made by the supreme court of the United States, under its organization as it had existed for years certain rag money inflation politicians—the seeds of that bountiful crop which now curse the country with their shallow financial demagogism—conceived the idea of packing the supreme court by placing two more judges upon the bench in order to obtain from that hitherto respectable tribunal decisions in accordance with their own political theories Accordingly an act of congress was passed authorizing the appointment of two new judges, that being the exact number necessary to nullify the virtue of the court and prostitute it to the vilest of purposes Strong and Bradley were appointed by President Grant Their views upon the legal tender question were well known in advance and they were practically stuffed into the great judicial ballot box At the December term of 1870 Strong and Bradley were on hand, and in the case of Parker vs Davis went through the farce of promulgating their partisan views in a judicial decision They decided that the legal tender acts were constitutional, and the decision in the case of Hopkins vs Griswold was overruled They did not however interfere with the non taxable element of government securities, as promulgated by the statutes and the courts

I suppose that the latter decision of the supreme court in the case of Parker vs Davis will govern until some fairly constructed tribunal reverses it. It was obtained by executive usurpation only a little more indirect than though it were done by the brief brutality of a military order at a time when any decision desired by the man on horseback might have been obtained by the same means In a country where the supreme judicial tribunal can be packed unpacked and repacked to suit party necessity justice is imperiled and social order no longer exists. WASHINGTON COUNTY DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM.

Resolved 1st. That we have an abiding faith in the correctness of Democratic principles as applied to the administration of public affairs, and that it is only through the success of these principles that equal and exact justice can be secured to all men or that reform in existing abuses can be obtained or purity and honesty secured in the civil service of the country

2d That we are in favor of an unconditional repeal of the resumption act.

3d That the act recently passed by congress known as the "Bland Silver Bill" meets with our hearty endorsement and we hereby express our condemnation of the president for his attempt to defeat the bill by his veto

4th That we are uncompromisingly opposed to a high protective tariff, and favor a tariff for revenue purposes only

5th That the lower house of congress deserves the lasting gratitude of the people for having searched out and exposed official abuses and corrupt practices, as well as for carrying out a system of economy in public expenditures whereby millions have been saved to the already overburdened and tax ridden people And we cannot withhold our severest censure of a Republican senate for its efforts to thwart these investigations and to defeat these efforts to economize public expenditures.

6th That the eighteen years of misrule of the Republican party is indubitable proof that that party is no longer to be trusted that much of its legislation in congress has tended to make the rich richer and the poor poorer, and we arraign that party before the people for its class legislation for having fostered and upheld rings, for its repeated efforts to overawe the voice of the people by an unjust and unconstitutional use of the military arm of the government and for the forgeries perpetrated under its official sanction whereby R B Hayes was placed in the presidential chair contrary to the expressed will of an overwhelming majority of the people of this nation

7th That we demand of the national authorities such modification of the Burlingame treaty with China as shall prevent the further importation of Mongolians into the Pacific states and territories.

8th That we hereby call upon all true men of whatever shade of opinion regardless of past political affiliations, to unite with us in our efforts to secure purity and economy in the administration of public affairs, and to correct abuses in official position

[From the New York Times, March 19]

Senator Mitchell may consider himself at liberty to concoct a railroad bill with the sole object of securing a re election in Oregon, but it is difficult to believe that the senate committee will help him to play his little game. His bill, as reported by a sub committee conveys the idea that he is less faithful even to Oregon than to Mr Jay Gould and the other magnates of the present transcontinental roads The effect of its enactment would be to render the construction of a northern competing road impossible

A Remarkable Result
It makes no difference how many physicians or how much medicine you have tried, it is now an established fact that German Syrup is the only remedy which has given complete satisfaction in severe cases of Lung Diseases. It is true there are yet thousands of persons who are predisposed to Throat and Lung Affections, Consumption, Hemorrhages, Asthma, Severe Colds settled on the Breast, Pneumonia, Whooping Cough, &c, who have no personal knowledge of Boschee's German Syrup. To such we would say that 50,000 dozen were sold last year without one complaint. Consumptives try just one bottle. Regular size 75 cts. Sold by all Druggists in America.

PARALLEL CONDITIONS

In her history of England Miss Martineau devotes much labor to an account of the long continued financial depression in that country which followed the great wars with Napoleon, and the innumerable attempts, always futile, to relieve the people either by organized benevolence or through legislation. The plain fact is that every great war is a destroyer of capital and a country which comes through such war is always poorer in consequence. The evils are immensely aggravated when there is an inflated and irredeemable currency to create fictitious prices and to induce private extravagance corresponding with the public waste. We got through our great war in much the same condition in which England was left at the termination of the long struggle with Napoleon. Yet in either country the theory was proclaimed that the depression and distress were caused not by exhaustion of war but by the contraction of currency and prices and other incidents of the transition to a state of peace. This imaginative logic, says Miss Martineau, "assumes that the expenditure of capital by government in the wasteful consumption of armies is more profitable than the expenditure of capital in the general objects of industry that creates more capital.' Cobbett, taking note of these dreams of the advantage of government expenditure, said 'To hear this talk one would suppose that government was a very rich and generous thing, having an immense estate of its own, instead of being what it is, the collector of immense sums drawn away from the people at large.' The error exposed in this statement is precisely that made by a multitude in our own time and country, who forsake labor, abandon habits of self dependence become "agitators," and look to government and legislation for assistance or support. They had all this in England, over and over, in the years of depression analogous to our own. It is now proclaimed that it is the duty of government to provide employment with means of subsistence for its people, and under intimidation or something very near to it the legislature of California has recently been attempting to open new sources of employment at the public expense, which the great surplus of private capital would instantly create, if such employments could be profitably exercised. Any goodness of intention at the bottom of such an undertaking could only be exceeded by the absurdity of the means. These forced employments are, of course, to be unprofitable, and can afford no returns to produce continued employment. Capital thus expended is wasted; and such efforts, instead of affording any actual relief only aggravate public distress. They hold out hopes of relief where none can be found, and propagate delusions where it is the highest interest of all classes of the people to know the truth of the situation and conform to it. The result of this in England, as described by Martineau, holds a mirror to events already transpiring in America. The nation," she says, "was defrauded out of its expectations. The danger was not only that the people should be irritated and misled by mob leaders and unscrupulous writers, but also that a feeling should grow up that government was a power of separate and exclusive interests from the people. The foundations of the state were loosened. Distrust of the poor was sown among the rich and demagogues did their own counterwork of exciting hatred of the rich amongst the poor." In these words we may see processes now in operation in our own country. The picture could not be more accurately drawn. We have in it one of those striking parallels of history which prove that the same general principles apply to human action in every age and through all time.

WHAT THERE IS IN IT.

As a consequence of five months effort and discussion in congress and at home on the railroad question we are not so near a practicable result as we might have been at the beginning. There are now two measures, one in the house and one in the senate. Each is likely to block the way of the other. The bill last reported is a great improvement upon what Mr. Mitchell attempted; but this bill gives no assurance of a road beyond that afforded by the house bill. Should it pass it would hinder rather than assist the construction of a road along the Columbia river. But it would give a land subsidy which might be some assistance to the effort now making to construct a road from Umatilla toward Salt Lake. It may be doubted whether congress will grant this, because members are inclined to look on it as a new subsidy; yet we should be glad to see it pass. Had this been all, the friends of the Northern Pacific in congress would have made no opposition. But it has been coupled with restrictions and burdens on that company which would have prevented it from doing anything, and even yet it could do nothing except by ignoring all the conditions relative to the road along the Columbia river. It would quite willingly forfeit the land grant from Portland to Umatilla, because that grant is quite valueless. Under either the senate or house bill it would now begin to build at the mouth of Snake river and proceed east as fast as its resources would allow.

The principal point to be made here is that this last bill assures nothing in the matter of establishing competition on the route of the Columbia river, though it is devoted chiefly to this object. The glib talk about the portage railroads is moonshine. They could have been built any time heretofore as well as under this bill. Nobody has prevented. And this bill would make it not a whit easier to build them now than before. It was not worth while to go to Washington and spend half a year in a wrangle for a thing that leaves the matter just where it was at first. If the grant were affording any aid for construction of these portage roads and the completion of a line down the Columbia river it would be quite another matter. In that case it would be worth while to talk about it. As it is months have been wasted, and final success of any bill is rendered more doubtful. But it is said that if one company do not build these portage roads and the line from Portland to Umatilla within the time prescribed another may. The alternative is nonsense. No company will build them. The O S N Co have a road at each of the portages now and are building another at the Cascades on the Oregon side. It is not at all likely that any other company will now put money in to build competing roads there, because it will not pay. If capitalists wanted to do this they would undertake it as a private enterprise rather than under this bill because the bill gives no aid whatever and at the same time it proposes to control the roads and regulate charges. If capital would not go into this enterprise when it could go in and be free, it will certainly not when heavy restrictions are imposed upon it.

There is great talk about delivering the Columbia river from the monopoly that now controls it. But this measure proposes what it cannot accomplish. It makes a great show of doing a thing and yet affords no means whatever of doing it. It is a hindrance rather than a help. It leaves the Columbia river in the hands of the company that now controls it just the same as before. All this part of the bill is therefore a sham. But it is better and more reasonable than the conditions on which Senator Mitchell insisted. We should be willing to see the bill pass, because though it would not establish competition on the line of the Columbia river, it would still be possible under the bill to build some road from Snake river eastward and the other grant might perhaps be used to afford help to those who are making an effort to build a road from Umatilla across the Blue mountains. Still there is danger that the consequence of all these complications and delays the whole effort may fail. This has been the principal danger from the start and it is yet in no degree lessened. It would be of great importance to the country to secure the adoption of some real plan to establish competition on the line of the river but what is now offered does nothing in that behalf. The question as to who will build the portage roads will remain unanswered.

Latest dispatches indicate a further slight decline of silver in London. A few days ago the United States treasury department purchased in London £700,000 silver for coining purposes. It was bought part at 54⅛ and part at 54¼d an ounce. At this rate the value of silver in the new dollar is a trifle less than 92 cents. Thus the government buys in Europe 92 cents worth of silver and sends it forth in our own country as a dollar of 100 cents. This juggle is the climax of our statesmanship. Just as soon as silver dollars become abundant the clumsy fraud will begin to cheat our people out of eight cents on the dollar. The pretence that the silver bill would enhance the price of silver is exploded. Our silver dollar will find its level, which is the bullion value of silver.

A friend at Eugene City requests us to print "the decisions of the supreme court which declare that greenbacks are not taxable." He adds 'The assessor of this county for the last several years has assessed greenbacks and the present assessor is anxious to see the decision of the supreme court on the subject.' We have not space to comply with this request. It will be sufficient to refer to the supreme court reports 7 Wallace, page 26, etc. These reports should easily be found in almost any lawyer's library. It is amazing that after all that has been said to elucidate this subject during the last dozen years there still should be so much ignorance upon it.

The worst efforts and consequences of Mr Mitchell's hostility to the Northern Pacific railroad have been frustrated by Messrs Grover and Williams. Mitchell was unable to get his propositions through his own committee, and the measures which the committee has adopted in lieu of them would not, if the bill should pass, cripple the enterprise seriously. True, they are not in all respects wise propositions, but they mark a decided advance toward what is both rational and practicable. Yet after all the fact that the business has reached its present stage rather increases the probability that no bill will pass.

An official report in a Russian military paper states that the czar's trophies in the war with Turkey were 27 pashas and 145,000 men—of whom 15 pashas and 117,000 men were taken in Europe—over 42,000 horses, 1,268 guns, 20 000 tents, 180,000 rifles of various makes, 200 000 yataghans belonging to the irregular cavalry, 13,000 silver-mounted daggers and sabers used by the Circassians, and large stores of gunpowder and over 530,000 cartridges.

Mr H H Gilfry sets his name to a county platform which demands that government bonds and greenbacks be taxed. Mr Gilfry has been described as 'a young man of feeble intellect," but he has not been considered an irreclaimable simpleton. Then what does he mean by setting his name to such a platform? It is the more inexcusable because he professes to be a lawyer.

There is not unanimity in the committee on the railroad bill reported to the senate. Only a bare majority of the committee agreed to report it, and a counter report on behalf of the minority has been submitted by Senator Windom, of Minnesota. This indicates a fight in the senate, further delay, and perhaps failure of everything.

The country is going to watch the vote on the Jay Gould scheme.

STATE GOVERNMENT FOR WASHINGTON.

PORT TOWNSEND, March 29, 1878.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

The fair manner in which THE OREGONIAN has spoken of the effort of the people of this territory to get from under the incubus of a provincial government is very gratifying to our people. You may be satisfied that the effort is a determined one, and that it will be successful. Politics are wholly ignored in the choice of delegates. The parties, it is true, called conventions and placed men in nomination, but it was distinctly and uniformly announced that no one's vote was claimed on party grounds but only that the party organizations be utilized to produce concentration of effort, and prevent a scrub race. Hence, in each of the judicial districts but a single candidate is before the people. In this district Col Larrabee and in the second Judge Dennison have no competitors and in fact in most of the council districts there is but a single candidate. There will be consequently a very light vote, in no sense representing the population of the territory.

In view of the steps being taken by our people the introduction of a bill by Senator Mitchell to attach Walla Walla and Whitman counties to Oregon, is regarded as a gratuitous insult, and if the senator could but hear the denunciations heaped on his head he would hereafter be satisfied with representing Oregon and the Union and Central Pacific railroads.

CITY.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT.—About 6:30 o'clock last evening a most unfortunate accident occurred at the residence of Mr Epperly, on the north side of Alder street between Second and Third. As near as can be ascertained the circumstances of this painful affair are about as follows. Yesterday forenoon Percy Wood son of Dr C M Wood a lad aged about ten years went to the store of Wm Beck & Son and purchased a very small single barreled pistol for $1 50 and also 100 cartridges to fit the weapon. Percy and another lad named Allie Epperly were playing about with the pistol nearly all day. Child like and without the least idea of the danger of such sport, the boys went running about snapping the weapon first at one and then at another. Thoughtlessly one of the lads placed a loaded cartridge in the weapon. The lads were playing about Mr Epperly's house early in the evening, when Percy Wood pointed the pistol at Miss Epperly, a young lady about eighteen years of age. Of course the child did it in all innocent fun never realizing for an instant that he was placing the young woman's life in danger. George Epperly a young man and brother of the girl, was in the room at the moment. He sprang forward on hearing the pistol click, to take it from the boy. He was not quick enough, for just as he turned around and was reaching for the weapon the cartridge exploded. The ball which was about the size of a buckshot took effect in the outer corner of the right eye and ranged upward and backward, inflicting a very painful wound. The force of the shock threw the young man back and he would have fallen to the floor had he not been caught by his sister. When he saw what he had done, the thoughtless lad was frightened nearly to death and ran over to his home, reaching there in a state of great trepidation. Medical aid was summoned hastily and an examination of the wound made by Drs Dickson and Jones. After probing for some time it was ascertained that the ball had not penetrated the brain although it had scraped along the bone. Several small fragments of the ball were taken out, but it was concluded not best to attempt the extraction of the ball for the present as it would only tend to irritate the wound. George the unfortunate young man, bore up under the painful probing with a great deal of fortitude never flinching nor manifesting the least want of courage. The injuries are regarded as painful but not of a serious character. Strange to say the eye ball is only slightly injured and the vision is not impaired. It was very fortunate that the ball struck glancingly. Had it struck fairly there is no doubt but that it would have penetrated the skull, and the consequences would have been fatal. At last accounts the young man was resting as comfortably as could be expected under the circumstances. We do not design to do injustice to any one, but it does seem that it is a most reprehensible act to sell a mere child a pistol and cartridges. There is, we believe no statutory provision against such an act, but common sense ought to teach any person better.

A DOUBLE MURDER.—The following paragraph is clipped from the Alta of the 20th: The Calistoga correspondent of the Napa Register writes that paper the following particulars of the double murder: 'The Geyser mail carrier, who arrived at this place Wednesday night, brought the news of the murder of the Thompson brothers, Granville and Green, who lived at Pine Flat. Our informant says that while sitting in the house, after night, they were fired upon through a window, one being killed instantly and the other dying Monday morning—the shooting having been done on Sunday night. To-day the story is corroborated by another party, who says they were at Pine Flat the night the murder was committed. The following circumstances are supposed to have been the cause. Green and Granville Thompson (twin brothers) had a fight with a man by the name of See in Pope valley some years ago which resulted in the death of the latter—the trouble originating in some land affair. It is said the brother of Mr. See vowed vengeance. After years of lawsuits, the Thompsons escaped the law, and have since acquired a fortune at Pine Flat, through mining enterprises and sheep-raising, having at present 12,000 head of sheep on their ranch. The story goes that See (who, it is supposed, did the shooting) was seen at the Geysers several days previous to the killing of the Thompsons. As they were at Santa Rosa, it was necessary for him to await their arrival home—Sunday night being the first night they had spent at home for over a week. The man who did the shooting, it is said, lives at Eugene City, Oregon and has taken his trip to California on purpose to wreak vengeance on those who caused his brother's death. Parties who are acquainted with the Thompsons say they have long expected an attack on their lives, and in all cases went heavily armed. But on this occasion they had no chance for defense as the shooting was done from the outside of the house, and with cool and deliberate aim.

CAPT LEROY WOODS.—When the news was first received here of the capsizing of the schooner Gen. Miller near San Francisco and of the probable loss of all on board, it was stated in THE OREGONIAN that the Colonel Woods spoken of in the dispatch (who was one of the unfortunate passengers), was no doubt Capt Leroy Woods. It will be remembered that Capt. Woods was here nearly two years ago he having brought from Sitka the captured schooner Ocean Spray, the crew of which vessel was charged with the violation of the United States laws prohibiting the killing of seals. There being no name other than "Col Woods" in the dispatch, it could not be stated positively that he was the same person. News, however has been received subsequently which settles the question beyond all conjecture. The Woods mentioned was no other person than the one who visited Portland. In alluding to the disaster a San Francisco exchange says: "Capt. Leroy Woods, deputy collector of Ounalaska, who was a passenger on the schooner was a native of Indiana. He had been three years in Alaska, and had returned home a short time ago to get married. When the soldiers were withdrawn from Alaska leaving the settlements unprotected, Col Woods hesitated to resume his post but was finally persuaded to do so, and took passage on the craft which has probably become his sepulchre." As no mention is made of his wife she was probably not on board.

BABY SHOW.—Portland has at one time or another had exhibitions and shows of almost every kind imaginable and a gentleman well known in the city has commenced arrangements to afford our people an opportunity to witness the only new thing under the sun and that is a baby show. The affair will take place shortly at some hall suitable for the purpose. He proposes to offer several prizes as follows: For the handsomest and brightest baby $40 [illegible] finest pair of twins 3 years old or under $[illegible] fattest baby, $20 4th handsomest mother $25 finest baby $2[illegible] homeliest baby silver goblet. The money prizes will be paid [illegible]. The entrance fee will be $[illegible] for each child and visitors will be charged 50cts admission to see the wonderful array of infantile beauty. Each visitor will be allowed a vote in the bestowal of the prizes without extra charge. If some plan is formed by which the prizes can be distributed to the satisfaction of all the others who contend for them the effort would create a good deal of amusement [illegible] result in no harm but reports of [illegible] in other places indicate that it is [illegible] undertaking. Most [illegible] mothers who [illegible] ly be apt to [illegible] the [illegible] the voice of [illegible] will be [illegible]. Further particulars [illegible].

TUESDAY MORNING, APRIL 2 1878

CITY.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT.—About 6 30 o'clock last evening a most unfortunate accident occurred at the residence of Mr Epperly on the south side of Alder street between Second and Third. As near as can be ascertained the circumstances of this painful affair are about as follows Yesterday forenoon Percy Wood, son of Dr C M Wood a lad aged about ten years, went to the store of Wm Beck & Son, and purchased a very small six barreled pistol for $1 50 and also 100 cartridges to fit the weapon Percy and a little lad named Allie Epperly were playing about with the pistol nearly all day Child like, and without the least idea of the danger of such sport, the boys went running about, pointing the weapon first at one and then at another. Thoughtlessly one of the lads placed a loaded cartridge in the weapon The boys were playing about Mr Epperly's house early in the evening when Percy Wood pointed the pistol at Miss Epperly a young lady about eighteen years of age Of course the child did it in all innocent fun never thinking for an instant that he was placing the young woman's life in danger George Epperly, a young man and brother of the lady, was in the room at the moment He sprang forward on hearing the pistol click to take it from the boy. He was not quick enough, for just as he turned around and was reaching for the weapon the cartridge exploded. The ball which was about the size of a buckshot, took effect in the outer corner of the right eye and ranged upward and back inflicting a very painful wound The force of the shock threw the young man back and he would have fallen to the floor had he not been caught by his sister When he saw what he had done the little lad was frightened nearly to death and ran over to his home reaching it in a state of great trepidation Medical aid was summoned hastily and an examination of the wound made by Drs Dickson and [illegible]. After probing for some time it was ascertained that the ball had not penetrated the brain, although it had scraped along the skull. Several small fragments of the ball were taken out, but it was concluded not best to attempt the extraction of the ball for the present, as it would only tend to irritate the wound. George, the unfortunate young man bore up under the painful probing with a great deal of fortitude, never flinching nor exhibiting the least want of courage The wound is regarded as painful, but not of a serious character. Strange to say the eye ball is not even slightly injured and the vision is not impaired. It was very fortunate that the ball took a glancing. Had it struck fairly there is no doubt but that it would have penetrated the skull and the consequences would have been fatal. At last accounts the young man was resting as comfortably as could be expected under the circumstances We do not desire to do an injustice to any one, but it does seem that it is a most reprehensible act to sell a small child a pistol and cartridges There is, we believe, no statutory provision against it, but at least common sense ought to teach any person better.

A DOUBLE MURDER.—The following paragraph is clipped from the Alta of the 20th ult. The Calistoga correspondent of the Napa [illegible] writes that paper the following particulars of the double murder "The Geyser mail carrier, who arrived at this place Wednesday night, brought the news of the murder of the Thompson brothers, Granville and Green, who lived at Pine Flat. Our informant states that while sitting in the house, after night, they were fired upon through a window, and being killed instantly and the other being [illegible] Monday morning—the shooting having been done on Sunday night. To-day the story is corroborated by another party, who says they were at Pine Flat the night the murder was committed The following circumstances are supposed to have been the cause. Green and Granville Thompson (twin brothers) had a fight with a man by the name of See, in Pope valley some years ago, which resulted in the death of the latter—the trouble originating in some land affair. It is said the brother of Mr See vowed vengeance. After years of lawsuits, the Thompsons escaped the law, and have since resided at Pine Flat, through mining, stockraising and sheep raising having at about 1,000 head of sheep on their ranch. The story goes that See (who, it is supposed, did the shooting) was seen at the Geysers a few days previous to the killing of the Thompsons. As they were at Santa Rosa, it was necessary for him to await their arrival last Sunday night being the first night they had spent at home for over a week The man who did the shooting, it is said lives at Lane City, Oregon, and has taken his trip to California on purpose to wreak vengeance on those who caused his brother's death. Those who are acquainted with the Thompsons say they have long expected an attack from See, and in all cases went heavily armed. But on this occasion they had no chance for defense, as the shooting was done from the outside of the house, and with cool and deliberate aim."

CAPT LEROY WOODS.—When the news was first received here of the capsizing of the schooner Ocean Spray near San Francisco and the probable loss of all on board it was stated in THE OREGONIAN that the Colonel Woods spoken of in the dispatch (who was one of the unfortunate passengers) was no doubt Capt. Leroy Woods. It will be remembered that Capt. Woods was here nearly two years ago, having brought from Sitka the schooner Ocean Spray, the crew of which vessel was charged with the violation of the United States laws prohibiting the killing of [illegible]. There being no name other than "Col Woods" in the dispatch, it could not be stated positively that he was the same person. We have, however, has been received sub[illegible] which settles the question beyond all conjecture The Woods mentioned was no other person than the one who visited Portland. In alluding to the disaster a San Francisco exchange says "Capt Leroy Woods, deputy collector of Oonalaska who was a passenger on the schooner was a native of [illegible]. He had been three years in Alaska and had returned home a short time ago to get married When the soldiers were withdrawn from Alaska, leaving the settlement unprotected, Col, Woods hesitated to resume his post, but was finally persuaded to do so, and took passage on the craft which has probably become his sepulchre As no mention is made of his wife, she was probably not on board.

BABY SHOW—Portland has at one time or another had exhibitions and shows of almost every kind imaginable, and a gentleman well known in the city has commenced arrangements to afford our people an opportunity to witness the only "new thing under the sun" and that is a baby show The affair will take place shortly at some hall suitable for the purpose. He proposes to offer several prizes as follows. For the handsomest and brightest baby, $40; 2d, finest pair of twins 3 years old or under, $25, 3d, fattest baby $20 4th handsomest mother, $25, finest baby, $20 homeliest baby, silver goblet The money prizes will be paid in gold coin The entrance fee will be $2 for each child and visitors will be charged 50cts admission to see the wondrous array of infantile beauty Each visitor will be allowed a vote in the bestowal of the prizes without extra charge If some plan is hit upon by which the prizes can be distributed to the satisfaction of all the mothers who contend for them the affair would create a good deal of amusement and result in no harm but reports of such things in other places show that it is no easy undertaking Most mothers who compete for the prize will hardly be apt to submit cheerfully to the voice of the majority of visitors Further particulars will be given in due time.

IN THE TEMPERANCE WORK—Says the [illegible] of March 27th "Rev Wm C Chattin and Colonel F. C Pilley went to Santa Rosa Saturday last, by invitation of the Ministerial Association of that city to hold a series of blue ribbon mass meetings A large [illegible] was held on Saturday evening and two on Sunday, one at 3 P. M and one at [illegible] All were overflowing and great numbers took the symbol of blue Great interest is evinced in the cause, and the country towns are waking to the movement

BURGLAR FOILED—Our regular correspondent at Eugene City writing under date of the [illegible], says, "A burglar attempted to rob the rooms of Mr F Coleman on Sunday evening, 8:30 He gained admittance to the room but was discovered and fled before any [illegible] was lost."

SICK AND DESTITUTE—A lady called at the police station yesterday forenoon and informed Capt Kelly that she resides in Albina and further informed him that she desired to report a case of sickness and destitution. The lady stated that she and her mother discovered last Sunday a Chinaman living in a wretched shanty in the outskirts of that place who was sick and wholly destitute On being questioned the Chinaman stated that he had been lying there for nearly a week during which time he had not tasted a morsel of food He said that he [illegible] countrymen had [illegible] abandoned him to his fate. The lady wished to know if Capt. Kelly could do anything to relieve the condition of the miserable wretch. [illegible] informed them in such cases [illegible] would inform some of the large Chinese firms of the condition of the man so that they could render the necessary assistance He also told the lady that she had better call the attention of the city marshal of East Portland to the case Yesterday afternoon Capt Kelly called on some of the Chinese firms and informed them of the pitiable condition of the [illegible] trying but they appeared very indifferent about the matter and it is extremely doubtful if they render any assistance unless compelled to do so by the authorities

REPUBLICAN CAMPAIGN CLUB—Last evening the Republican voters of East Portland met at the council chamber and organized a Republican Campaign Club The following officers were elected President F J Matlock vice president [illegible] Merrick secretary H Pape treasurer Frank Payne janitor B F Ausmus The club have secured Odd Fellows Hall as a place of meeting Tuesday evening of each week has been fixed as the time for the club to meet After the temporary organization last evening a large number came forward and signed the constitution and by laws A cordial invitation is extended to all Republicans in neighboring precincts to attend the weekly meetings of the club

LOCKS AND CANAL MODEL—Maj Bolton of the U S engineer's office is busily engaged in building a model which is to represent in detail the locks and canal which it is proposed to construct at the Cascades The model when completed will show just how the locks will be worked A miniature turbine wheel about two inches in diameter will be used to operate the machinery—open and shut the gates let the water in and out etc This model will be a most skillfully contrived arrangement and the manner in which it is being constructed reflects credit on Major Bolton That gentleman is a workman who should not be ashamed of his chips The model will be finished in about two weeks

CHINESE MISSION SCHOOL—This (Tuesday) evening the third annual exhibition of the Portland Chinese Mission school will be held at the First Baptist church On this occasion a very interesting programme has been prepared—one which cannot fail to attract and please The programme includes the following selections Eleven recitations by the Chinese pupils three songs four songs and choruses two readings two orations, three declamations and three dialogues Much care and patience have been exercised by the teachers in training the Chinese pupils, and there is no doubt but that they will be able to display to the best possible advantage the proficiency they have acquired in obtaining a knowledge of the English language and also make a very creditable showing

THE BIGGEST SELL—It is safe to say the biggest sell in Oregon yesterday was that perpetrated on "Big Jack" who manipulates the throttle valve on one of the engines of the O & C R R line As the north bound train was approaching the Calapooia and running at the rate of 30 miles an hour a flag was espied by the engineer who promptly whistled down breaks Jimmy Anderson was delegated to step down and get the signal Not expecting a sell Jimmy complied and as he gathered in the red flannel discovered a piece of paper attached thereto on which was written This is April fool day—go on, and on they went the passengers asking the situation and with peals of laughter showing their appreciation of the joke played on Big Jack

STATION AT MILWAUKIE—The citizens of Milwaukie and vicinity have long felt the need of a regular station on the O & C R R at that point, and the company have now made arrangements to accommodate them A waiting room has been prepared and a ticket and freight office will be opened there Mr Edward Vedder, a young man in every way well qualified for the position has been appointed as station agent A large number of people will be greatly accommodated by the establishment of this agency The new agent will we opine, be found attentive obliging and faithful in the discharge of his duties

NOT GUILTY—In the state circuit court yesterday the case of State vs Chas D Eagan was on trial Defendant was indicted for the crime of larceny committed some time ago at the St Charles hotel After hearing all the evidence in the case and receiving the charge of the judge the jury retired for deliberation The jurors only remained out a very few minutes when they returned a verdict of not guilty, whereupon the court discharged the defendant

FOURTH OF JULY—A patriotic individual suggests that it is not too soon to talk about celebrating the Fourth of July and thinks we ought to be able to get up a show equal, if not better to that which occurred just after the flood when many of the streets were yet inundated He further suggests that the procession be so divided as to give the firemen a chance to march at night and show off their fine clothes and fire engines by gas light and torches

COLLECTION DAY—A movement is on foot through the agency of many book keepers to change the collection day to the second day of each month This will enable these hard worked men to get through the business of the month before sending out monthly statements A number of wholesale merchants have assented to go into the movement

NEW HOTEL—The contract has been let to R Porter to execute all the work except the brick work, on a three story brick building 50 by 100 feet, to be constructed on the north east corner of F and Third streets The price is $11 100 Messrs Lewiston & Freeland present proprietors of the Minnesota hotel will occupy the new building

HALF FARE RATES—The committee having charge of the anniversary celebration of Samaritan Lodge I O O F have effected arrangements for half rates over the various railroad and steamboat lines for the accommodation of those from abroad who desire to attend

MAILS—The mails for San Francisco per steamer City of Chester will close this evening at 9 o'clock Registered mail closes at 4 P M to day Get your letters in the office in good time

TOUR OF INSPECTION—Col J M Wilson sailed down the river to Fort Stevens yesterday on a tour of inspection He will not return before Wednesday

Important Announcement.

FOR

SPRING GOODS!

IN ADDRESSING THE PUBLIC ON THIS OCcasion we do so with more confidence than at any time since our advent into business. Our career in business has been singularly successful having attained a degree of enviable notoriety for straightforward dealing selling goods at a slight margin on importers prices.

Our STOCK for the Spring Trade is one of the best selected and the most comprehensive ever before offered to the people of Oregon—bought on the most advantageous terms and embracing every line in the trade

In disposing of this immense Stock our conduct shall be guided by the same golden rule as heretofore—Honest dealing and the Smallest Living Profits

Our patrons embrace a large number of the Northwestern population and in sending out our

we hope to see or hear from all our old friends and as many new ones as wish to avail themselves of this opportunity of purchasing goods cheaper than ever before offered in the Metropolis of the North west

Our facilities this year have been peculiarly favorable for procuring having through our friends of the Bay City had the chance of picking up special lines suitable for this market at prices for which manufacturers could not begin to produce them This in a great measure is caused by the almost general stagnation of business in the leading markets of the United States and more directly affecting the Pacific States from the hard times they have had and are having in San Francisco The consequence is the merchants there must unload their heavy stocks and in many cases at a great sacrifice

Fully realizing the situation our MR KERRON launched out and purchased an IMMENSE STOCK!

More than in ordinary times he would have been justified in buying but the low prices he obtained them at will enable us to spread them over this State and the Territories at such a reduction on old time prices as will convince the most skeptical that we mean business and business we Must and Will Do!

It would be useless attempting to give a List of Prices Space does not warrant it. But we shall forward samples to any of our country friends who send for them

The public in dealing with us can place implicit faith in the fact that the lowest prices are asked All Goods are marked in plain figures from which there can be no deviation thus placing the inexperienced on equal terms with the experienced in the purchase of goods

Our country friends would do well to reap the advantage of an early inspection of our Warehouse it is incumbent on us to make room We are crowded and we must move goods off to make way for fresh contracts to arrive by every Steamer during all April

We have advices of a shipment of Goods from Glasgow direct now fully due and daily expected

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

Financial

MONDAY EVENING April 1 1878

Gold in New York 101¼.

Legal tenders in Portland—buying 98½ selling 99½

Silver in Portland 3@4 per cent. discount

Locally the money market is devoid of any new feature of special interest. The demand for loanable funds is increasing slowly with the advance of the season and the inauguration of enterprises and improvements incident to the spring of the year. Rates are generally unchanged though an exception now and then is noticed in loans on real estate in which a much lower rate than usual is shown but it should be remembered that particular circumstances may attend these transactions which would take them out of the general rule for loans the sums mentioned in them being probably part of purchase price. We learn of no transaction in the way of actual loans to indicate any decline in the rates prevailing for some weeks past

As will be seen by reference to the quotations given legal tender notes are still 2½ higher than silver and at the maximum of only ½ of 1 per cent below par in gold. The rise in greenbacks says the N Y Shipping List no doubt proceeds from their being, at present, the sole basis of American banking and trade. The banks will not receive silver on deposit except in limited sums and gold is not in circulation. Government operations are usually conducted on a greenback basis. There appears to be an increasing movement to hoard greenbacks and render them scarce. It may be not a distinct purpose but it is evident the general drift of the current. That it is not a settled part of the great silver bullion speculation is proved by the steadiness of the price of silver in London

The same authority says The marked decrease in the export of specie during the expired eight months of the fiscal year is one of the encouraging financial features of the time. Last year the specie remittances were more than double what they have been this and in 1876 they were three times as large. This is mainly due to the increased exports of produce and light imports of foreign merchandise. We have had to pay very little coin for interest, principal of bonds or for merchandise. The exports of produce will decrease during the summer months, but on the other hand certain exports which used to be of trifling importance are now large, and constantly increasing in value. For the present, at least, the inclination to return our bonds from abroad does not embarrass our balance of trade. If the investment of four per cent bonds has been checked, the European bondholders can find no safer place for the present than in the paper of a government, the people of which can supply foreigners with so many of the necessities of life. As our capacity for agricultural production is unlimited so the demands of Europe are not likely to be curtailed in the long run

Miscellaneous.

N K Fairbanks, president of the Chicago board of trade, is of the opinion that prices in provisions are likely to go down lower still than they have been, owing to the large stock on hand, the production of hogs this year being about eight millions, against only five millions last year

Correspondents of the New York Bulletin in Nebraska and Minnesota state that the supply of wheat for export is fast becoming exhausted, and that the surplus now on hand will be needed at home for seed and bread. The same authority says: There is another very important fact to be borne in mind with regard to the coming spring wheat crop. A season, as the present promises to be, by which the farmers are able to sow wheat in March, and with the ground in as fine condition as reported to us, seldom fails to ensure a splendid crop. The grain afloat and in store at Chicago is 3,118,440 bushels against 6,180,361 bushels last year

The imports of wheat into Great Britain and Ireland from all countries in 1877 was 54,162,888 cwts. The percentage of the whole amount imported was 10.1 for Germany, 39.3 for the United States, and 20 for Russia. Going back to the year 1838 the imports for the United States were given at only 555 quarters, against 41,839 quarters from Russia, and 303,263 quarters from Germany. In that year the percentage of all the imports was only 04 for the United States, as against 3 33 for Russia and 69 6 for Germany. In the following year the percentage for the United States rose to 14, against 14.1 for Russia and 48 6 for Germany, though for the year immediately following the figures were, respectively 8 7, 13 5 and 58.5. For the three years 1838, 1839 and 1840, the percentage of all imports was 1 2 for the United States, 10 40 for Russia and 57 3 for Germany

Late reports from the western and northwestern states are favorable for a large crop of grain the coming season. Winter wheat, it is said, never looked better. There is considerable old wheat yet on hand. In Nebraska and Iowa planting has already begun and the season is the mildest, in all parts of the west, known for many years

There are at last some evidences that the embargo laid on the country trade by the long continued rains, and the consequent impassability of the roads will soon be partially raised. Orders from dealers in the interior are already increasing in numbers and give promise of a heavy spring trade.

Real Estate.

There is still a good deal of activity in the real estate market, and prices show a higher and firmer tone. The inquiry for residences at a moderate rental is brisk, and few if any such can be found vacant. A large number of such buildings will be erected in the city this season. A steady increase by immigration to the farming class creates a good demand for farming lands, and we notice several large sales reported in our exchanges from the principal agricultural counties. In this county since our last report, deeds of the date named have been filed for record

March 29, 1878, 84 85 100 acres of James Loomis donation land claim in sections 1 and 2, township 1 N R 1 W—$522.

March 29 1878, 100 acres of aforesaid claim—$700

March 29 1878, 60 acres of aforesaid claim—$80

November 3, 1877, 160 acres, commencing at the northeast corner of James Loomis' donation land claim, thence south 60° west 40 ch, thence south 22° 30', etc. 160 acres—$100

March 29 1878, west ½ of lots 7 and 8, block 173 Portland—$2,500.

March 29 1878, 15 acres, beginning 12 ch and 24½ links east of southwest corner of section 19 township 1 S, R 1 E, thence east 12 ch and 24½ links, thence north 12 ch and 24½ links, etc.—$150

March 29 1878, 100 acres in section 4 township 1 S, R 2 E—$1 000.

March 19 1878—All of that part of W ½ of S ½ of donation land claim of Socrates H Tyson, situated in T. 1 S R. 1 E, $1,000.

Feb. 26, 1878—E. ½ of lots 7 and 8 in blk 197, East Portland $800.

March 28 1878—Undivided ½ of lot beginning at ¼ post in W line sec. 21, T 1 N R. 1 E thence N 5 chains, and E. 20 chains, 10 acres, $1 200

March 30 1878—Lot beginning at stake S side line of S. 7, T. 1 S, R. 1 E., 20 chains westerly from S. E. corner said section; thence N 89° 30' W tracing section line 10 chains to stake etc. $725

MORTGAGES

Since our last report, only three mortgages have been recorded, the limited number being evidence—but not conclusive—that most of the deeds above named have probably been cash transactions. The mortgages are as follows $1,000 for 12 months at 1 per cent per month $1,500 payable in 1, 2 and 3 years, no interest named, $807 for 3 years, no interest named.

The Church Extension Board has given release of mortgage, dated April 10, 1870 by the First Evangelical church to secure $500 covering lot 6 in block 60 Portland Shipping Intelligence.

The Br ship Francis Thorpe hence with a cargo of wheat, arrived at Queenstown March 23d, 117 days out.

DR. PAUL M. BRENAN.
His Wonderful Success
IN THE TREATMENT OF ALL
Chronic and Difficult Diseases.
He has astonished the People of this Coast by his skillful Operations.

HE HAS TAUGHT IN HIS

public and private lectures the true principles of health and life to both male and female. He has also warned them against habits that would be likely to produce disease in plain and comprehensive language. But where he has found them crushed and broken down by disease mentally and physically he has restored them to health and happiness for it is well understood that without health there can be no happiness.

has made a specialty in the treatment of the following diseases Catarrh Bronchitis and all diseases of the throat and chest by an entirely new system only known to himself. Diseases of the Kidneys and Urinary Organs including Spermatorrhea Seminal Weakness or premature loss of Manhood. In the treatment of these diseases he has made a world wide reputation by his astonishing success not only on this Coast but throughout the whole United States. Diseases of the stomach bowels liver and kidneys as well as all diseases of the blood and skin he has become master of and never fails to give relief at once and permanently cures the case if he is applied to in time to ladies only for years and is perfectly familiar with all female complaints and understands their delicate and refined organization as well as the proper remedies which should be used to allay their suffering and restore them to perfect health

THE DOCTOR HAS GIVEN SPECIAL LECTURES

THE DOCTOR HAS THIS ADVANTAGE

over most physicians—he can tell the patients disease the moment he comes in contact with them without any aid from the individual. This accounts in part for his great professional success

All surgical operations can be performed by his skillful hand and the patient need not fear the result.

DR BRENAN

will send to those living at a distance and who cannot well visit his office a list of Printed Questions and by their answers [illegible] he can tell the disease as well as the proper treatment almost as well as seeing the patient [illegible] and will forward [illegible] to any part of the country [illegible]

GENERAL NEWS.

BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN

Blair's Resolution Passed.

ANNAPOLIS April 2. The senate passed the house Blair resolution for a review of the electoral count

Cleveland City Election.

CLEVELAND O April 2—Complete returns from all the wards and precincts of the city give the Republicans 13 out of 18 councilmen and elect their entire ticket with the exception of police commissioners

Cincinnati Election

CINCINNATI April 2—Incomplete returns from the city election indicate the election of D. Baker Republican to the board of public works by 2 000 majority. Harmon (Dem), judge of the superior court by 2 600 majority. Smiley (Dem) clerk of the police court, and Baker (Dem) city solicitor by small majorities. The council will probably be Republican and the board of aldermen Democratic. The Nationals developed but little strength.

Columbus City Election.

COLUMBUS O April 2—Full returns of the city election yesterday show the Democrats carried the entire city ticket, with but one exception, by reduced majorities

Burial of Restell.

NEW YORK April 2—The remains of Madame Restell were taken to Ferrytown today for interment. Her relatives, counsel and servants attended the funeral

Money and Stocks.

NEW YORK April 2—Silver bars 121, greenbacks 119½, gold silver coin ½@1¼ discount; gold closed steady at 1½ money closed active at 7, governments weak, lower, stocks feverish and lower. Western Union, 80½.

Schenectady Election.

SCHENECTADY N Y, April 2—At the charter election to day the Democratic city ticket was elected by a large majority.

The Terre Haute Election.

TERRE HAUTE April 2—In the elections yesterday the National party carried 8 of 12 townships in the county, and carried the city by 187 votes over the Democratic party, and by 790 votes over the Republican party.

Chicago City Election.

CHICAGO April 3—Few wards have sent in full returns but from what is received it is evident the council will lose some of its best members and their places be supplied with less creditable selections. Out of 13 wards, 15 have been heard from with sufficient completeness to base an opinion upon. In these 9 Democrats, 5 Republicans and 1 Communist have been elected. From towns the returns are even less decisive. It is pretty certain the Republicans have elected their ticket in the south town and the prospects favor a Republican victory in the north town while the west town is in doubt. Friends of municipal reform are considerably disappointed at the result of the election of the council.

Woman Suffrage Defeated.

BOSTON April 2—A resolution to amend the constitution in favor of woman suffrage was refused a third reading in the senate today by 19 to 16

National Party Convention.

POTTSVILLE, Pa, April 2—The National party of Pennsylvania hold a convention May 8 at Philadelphia

National Rifle Association.

NEW YORK April 2.—At a meeting to-day of the National Rifle Association the following resolution was adopted

Resolved, That for the purpose of developing public interest in rifle shooting with military weapons an "international rifle" match be announced to take place at the annual prize meeting of this association, to be held at Creedmoor September next, to be open to all teams from each of the states of the union, provinces of Canada kingdom of Great Britain and from all other countries, each country having national guard or military distinct from its regular army to be entitled to a separate team to represent each

The annual convention of riflemen will be held at Creedmoor Friday May 24th, for the purpose of organization. The secretary was directed to notify all clerks and request them to forward at once the number of members and names of representatives whom they will send to the convention

Morrissey Improving.

TROY April 2—John Morrissey is improving

An Ex-Congressman in Trouble.

ALBANY April 2—Ex-Congressman D. H. Duell, arrested on a charge of defrauding a widow out of $600 pension money, has been released on bail. Duell claims he can produce a receipt for the money

WASHINGTON CITY.

The Way to Buy Iron.

NEW YORK April 2—The World's Washington special says Luttrell introduced in the house to day a bill to authorize the secretary of the navy to purchase plate iron in the open market without advertising for bids at the lowest market price, subject to the usual inspection and tests repealing all acts inconsistent with this. In view, however, of the abuse of this system of open purchase under Robeson now under investigation by a committee of the house it is not likely that many members of the present congress will vote for this proposition

The Revenue Bill.

The ways and means committee adjourned till Wednesday, by which time it is believed they will complete the internal revenue bill. A majority is in favor of suspending payments in the sinking fund or reimposing the income tax

Mexican Justice.

WASHINGTON April 2—The state department reports that at Mier, on the Rio Grande, the Mexican authorities, on requisition returned a herd of stolen cattle to their Texas owners and took steps to punish the thieves

The McGarrahan Case

WASHINGTON April 2—The senate committee on public lands, acting under Wm McGarrahan's memorial praying that a land patent be issued to him for the New Idria quicksilver mine met this evening and heard the arguments upon the resolutions excluding all testimony except that bearing upon the title of Gomez to the land in controversy

The River and Harbor Bill.

NEW YORK April 2—The Herald's Washington special says the following are the chief items of the river and harbor bill so far as the Pacific coast is concerned. Oakland $80 000. Wilmington Cal, $20 000. Sacramento and Feather river $8 000. lower Willamette and Columbia rivers $30 000. Columbia and Snake rivers $20 000. canal around the Columbia river Cascades $[illegible] 000. upper Willamette river $20 000

Stephens' Financial Bill

WASHINGTON April 2—The house committee on banking and currency to day appointed as a sub committee Yeates Hartzell and Fort to report upon Representative Stephens' financial bill introduced into the house yesterday

Unfruct's Friends Jubilant.

CHICAGO April [illegible] The [illegible]'s Washington special says Personal adherents of Samuel J Tilden are in high spirits over the passage by the Maryland state senate of the [illegible] resolution [illegible]. A gentleman very jubilant from Annapolis says Blair is [illegible] and [illegible] of the legislature [illegible] Hayes will [illegible] from [illegible] days [illegible] Maryland does [illegible] the [illegible] must [illegible] the [illegible] President [illegible] the [illegible] these Dem[illegible] of the [illegible] favorable to president himself [illegible] Blair's action as merely intended to stir up sectional strife
